Is Bolivia advancing in the manufacture of lithium batteries?

La Paz, May 20 (Prensa Latina) The Bolivian Lithium Deposits Corporation is advancing in the manufacture of lithium batteries for laptops, photovoltaic systems and electric cars, Deputy Minister of High Energy Technologies, Alvaro Arnez, assured today.

What's going on with Bolivia's largely untapped lithium reserves?

Sources In a significant move towards the development of Bolivia's largely untapped lithium reserves, Chinese battery giant CATL has confirmed a $1.4 billion investment. The deal, which was cemented on Sunday, is a continuation of a partnership with the Bolivian government that was established in January.

Does Bolivia have a lithium plant?

This follows a deal between Bolivia's state-run lithium company, Yacimientos del Litio Bolivianos (YLB), and a Chinese consortium. CATL agreed to invest over $1 billion in the project's first stage for rights to develop the two lithium plants. Despite being a global leader in electric vehicle batteries, CATL does not currently produce any lithium.

Do Bolivian companies use batteries?

Ramos reported in mid-April that Bolivian public and private companies such as Quantum Motors, Movi and Qipus use the batteries created by that company with good results, and now the corporation has a wide range of energy storage elements and the capacity to develop them.

Does Bolivia have a lithium ambition?

Bolivia's deputy minister for advanced technologies Alvaro Arnez, who oversees lithium development, acknowledged in a brief March interview with Reuters that the government needed to show results in order to prove that its ambitions are serious. Arnez restated its goal of achieving battery production and large-scale lithium extraction by 2025.

How much will Bolivia's lithium industry invest in 2028?

He announced a $1.4 billion investment and hinted at possible future investments up to 2028. The construction of these plants could start as early as July. The total investment in the Bolivian lithium industry is expected to reach around $9.9 billion.
